

I respectfully request that the FCC not implement any proposal that will lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. This law has dramatically cut down on the unwanted phone calls to our home which is very important to us, as senior citizens. Hurrying to get to what might be an important call, only to get a sales pitch, can be frustrating and sometimes even dangerous when people have a tendency to fall easily.